TEAM CULTURE: DEBRIEF GUIDE

This document is meant to guide debrief conversations with your team as you unpack the Grassroots Assembly experience. Active, continuous learning is key when building your leadership skills, and unpacking those learnings is equally important. Please use these questions to learn more about what your team enjoyed, may have found challenging or new things they learned. We always appreciate hearing our partners' experiences, but sharing feedback is totally optional. This kind of feedback strengthens how we, as a collaborative and individual, share resources and offer worthwhile experiences for everyone.

Overall Experience

- What was your overall experience?
- What did you enjoy about your time at the Grassroots Assembly?
- Was there anything challenging? If so, what?
- Do you feel that attending the Grassroots Assembly helped you better understand your campaign's relationship with Youth First? How would you explain that relationship?
- Is there anything you would recommend for the Youth First team? Something they should do again, try something new, or avoid the next time?
- How well were the facilitator(s) at making the session(s) enjoyable and informative?

Things You've Learned

- Share something new that you learned!
- Who or what did you learn this from?
- Were there any experiences or conversations that left you with more questions than answers? Anything you want to follow up on?
- What are some things you learned that could apply to you personally or your day-to-day work?

Self-Reflection

- What did our team do well as a collective? What are we proud of?
- What could our team do better next time? Is there any way we could have prepared better?
- How did you personally show up in the space?
- How well were we prepared as a team to participate in the Grassroots Assembly?
- Is there someone else from your team who should be present at future YFJC events?

YFJC GRASSROOTS ASSEMBLY DEBRIEF GUIDE

This document is meant to guide debrief conversations with your team as you unpack the Grassroots Assembly experience. Active, continuous learning is key when building your leadership skills, and unpacking those learnings is equally important. Please use these questions to learn more about what your team enjoyed, may have found challenging or new things they learned. We always appreciate hearing our partners' experiences, but sharing feedback is totally optional. This kind of feedback strengthens how we, as a collaborative and individual, share resources and offer worthwhile experiences for everyone.

Overall Experience

- What was your overall experience?
- What did you enjoy about your time at the Grassroots Assembly?
- Was there anything challenging? If so, what?
- Do you feel that attending the Grassroots Assembly helped you better understand your campaign's relationship with Youth First? How would you explain that relationship?
- Is there anything you would recommend for the Youth First team? Something they should do again, try something new, or avoid the next time?
- How well were the facilitator(s) at making the session(s) enjoyable and informative?

Things You've Learned

- Share something new that you learned!
- Who or what did you learn this from?
- Were there any experiences or conversations that left you with more questions than answers? Anything you want to follow up on?
- What are some things you learned that could apply to you personally or your day-to-day work?

Self-Reflection

- What did our team do well as a collective? What are we proud of?
- What could our team do better next time? Is there any way we could have prepared better?
- How did you personally show up in the space?
- How well were we prepared as a team to participate in the Grassroots Assembly?
- Is there someone else from your team who should be present at future YFJC events?